

URL: <https://stv.stanford.edu/clips/bad-news-can-be-good-news>

HopStop Founder Chinedu Echeruo describes how events in the life of a startup can be hard to interpret. Echeruo describes how it seemed to be “bad news” when Google became a competitor in mapping services, but that it may have lead to the “good news” of HopStop’s acquisition by Apple in 2013.

Transcript

English subtitles are not available for this media..