

URL: <https://stvp.stanford.edu/clips/choosing-an-attorney>

Attorney Martin Nichols shares subjective early filters to use when trying to find a proficient attorney. Beyond these basic measurements, a difference in quality will be found in each attorney's ability to get deals done. Nichols suggests finding an attorney who can also be a solid advisor and a true value-add for your company.

Transcript

English subtitles are not available for this media..